LIVE EVERYDAY CONMAN STRONG

Imagine having to tell your child he/she has cancer. I guarantee it is one of the hardest things you would ever have to do in your life. What is even more difficult is telling your child that all known curable treatment options have been exhausted. Unfortunately, my wife and I have had to have both of these conversations with our son Connor.

In November of 2012, when Connor was twelve, he was diagnosed with stage 4 Alveolar Rhabdomyosarcoma, a rare and aggressive form of childhood cancer. Connor's treatment protocol consisted of 54 weeks of intense chemotherapy and radiation. He was cancer free for almost a year but it returned in 2015 when he was in 8th grade. He went through another two years of chemotherapy and radiation. During this time Connor was forced to give up contact sports. In order to experience being part of a high school sports team he joined the golf team. He absolutely fell in love with the sport and golf became his passion. The cancer returned a second time in the summer of 2017 prior to his junior year of high school. In early October of 2017 a CT scan revealed the disease had progressed and our family received the devastating news there were no known curable treatment options left. Connor passed away peacefully on February 13, 2018 at the age of 17. He battled this disease for more than five years with an incredible amount of strength, courage and grace.

The Connor Hunt Memorial Foundation was started for two reasons. First and foremost, our goal is to raise much needed money to support the pediatric cancer clinical research efforts of Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital in Chicago. The results from these trials not only benefit kids being treated in Chicago it also benefits kids around the world. For some children, these clinical trials may be their last hope for survival.

Our other intention is to keep Connor's memory alive in our community by offering a small scholarship to a graduating senior Naperville Central High School.

Given Connor's love for the game of golf, we feel the perfect way to honor Connor is hosting a golf outing in his name. We need your assistance in helping us realize our hope that someday no child will have to be told there are no known curable treatment options left. Please consider helping us support our mission by becoming a sponsor for our inaugural golf outing.

The Connor Hunt Memorial Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation organized in the state of Illinois and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization.

Your support is greatly appreciated

On June 10th, executives spanning the capital markets space including banks, brokers, exchanges, trading firms and more will gather in the Western Suburbs of Chicago for a day of on-course market structure debate, sun and camaraderie in support of the Connor Hunt Memorial Foundation.
